CITY TRUSTEES

Not Much Doing—The Reliable Garbage Question Up Again

All members present. After reading of minutes, bids for the improvement of Vine street were opened and declared and referred to the city engineer. A long list of demands was presented and referred. A communication was received from the Southern California Gas Co. requesting that the city advertise for sale a forty-year franchise for the laying of gas pipe in the city. A representative of the company was present and addressed the board. The matter was referred to committee of the whole. Mr. Hall, the garbage collector, wished to bring up a matter referred to at the last meeting by Mr. Coker, but the chairman refused to allow any discussion of the subject and other business was proceeded with. A contract between the Glendale and Eagle Rock Railway Co. and the city of Glendale, agreeing to convey to the latter the pole and wire electrical distributing system leading into Verdugo Canon, was presented by the manager of the light department, and the same was approved.

Mr. Brewster of Woods Hotel appeared with a sample case, capacity 15 gallons which he is using for garbage and which the collector complained of being too large. A discussion of this subject for the past several weeks having qualified the members of the board to act as experts, quickly disposed of the matter without any drastic action, promising for the collector that the collector would call more regularly hereafter and be able to manage the can.

In the absence of City Attorney Evans, Attorney F. L. Muhleman advised the board as to the method of action in regard to cases where water companies failed to make connection when requested by consumers; the gist of the opinion being that the companies may be compelled to supply water on demand.

The manager of the lighting department reported the ornamental lighting system within a few days of completion. Mr. Lane made a motion rescinding the order for the muzzling of dogs, which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Coker, the fire department was instructed to at all times give assistance when called upon by any one in need of its services without as well as within the city where practicable. At a quarter of nine the board adjourned and went into committee of the whole.

AT HIGH NOON.

At high noon, in Christ's Episcopal church, on September 17, Miss Emma Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Williams, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Petersen.

While the guests were assembling, Professor Skeels, of the University of Southern California, rendered exquisite music on the pipe organ.

The church was artistically adorned with quantities of fern and white hyacinths. On the altar the cross of lighted candles was a beautiful and reverent symbol, increasing the sweet solemnity of the hour.

Just at high noon the strains of Lohengrin's immortal wedding march filled the cathedral. Miss Williams advanced slowly down the center aisle, attended by her father. She was costumed in a white broadcloth tailored suit and wore a large white picture hat ornamented with three beautiful plumes, and carried an armful of white bride's roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at Hotel Alexandria, where a beautiful decorative scheme was carried out in American Beauty roses. Covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Williams, Miss Ellen Williams, Miss Nellie Williams, Miss Clara Petersen and Miss Bertha Petersen.

A month will be spent in the northern part of the state, after which Mr. and Mrs. Petersen will be at home to their friends in their handsome foothill residence at North Glendale.

The young couple received innumerable beautiful gifts, and the wedding ceremony terminated a long series of social compliments of which the bride has been the recipient during the summer season.

"Theodore Roosevelt: Some Lessons the Church Can Learn From Him," is the subject the pastor has selected for the morning service. This is not a political service or in the interest of the candidacy of Mr. Roosevelt.

"Getting Well Without Doctors, Drugs or Christian Science" is the topic of the 7:30 evening service.

The Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock. There are classes for all ages. The Sunday school will hold a food sale at the grocery store of J. N. McGillis, Brand boulevard, Saturday of this week. There will be for sale cakes, pies, doughnuts, beans, pressed meat, tongue and salads.

CASA VERDUGO M. E. CHURCH.

Our church is enjoying a good growth. A number having united with us in the past few weeks from among our best families. The entertainment and supper given by the ladies of the church last week was in every way a success. The one to be given on Sept. 27th will more than duplicate one just enjoyed.

The Sunday school is getting back to normal. Now meets at 9:45 a. m. It is doing finely. The congregations are increasing and very attentive. Two of the nine sermons on the "Lord's Prayer" are yet to be given. Some real interest has been awakened in this course of sermons.

Adjourned quarterly conference will be called for Sabbath at 12 o'clock. Officers for the year will be elected.

The Wednesday evening prayer meetings are better attended than for two years and much good is experienced through them.

A PLEASANT OCCASION.

The reception extended to the pastor and Sunday school superintendent and his wife by the Baptist church last Thursday evening was a delightful affair. The occasion for the reception was the return of the pastor from a two months' vacation, spent in the East, and the removal of the superintendent and his family to Downey.

The basement of the new building, fresh and new and brilliantly lighted, decorated in green and white with bouquets of cut flowers, afforded a fine place for such an affair. More than a hundred people were present to pay their respects. A short, but delightful program in charge of Mr. A. R. Taylor was given consisting of a violin solo by Mr. Cecil Crandall, a vocal solo by Miss Vera McKee, a duet by Miss McKee and Mr. Taylor, a reading by Mr. Badger of Los Angeles, and a solo by Mr. Taylor. During the program the pastor was called on for remarks, who expressed the high esteem in which Mr. Arrowsmith, the superintendent is held, and on behalf of the church and school presented to Mr. and Mrs. Arrowsmith a handsome rocking chair. Following the program light refreshments were served by the ladies of the church and all departed for their homes feeling a pleasant evening had been well spent.

The "Gleaners" Sunday school class of the West Glendale M. E. church will give an entertainment Friday evening Sept. 20 in the chapel of the church. A good program will be given, one feature of which will be "A Lesson in Fractions," given by ten of the young people." Price of admission 15 cents.

MAIDS AND MATRONS "AT HOME."

Mrs. Charles Sowl presided on Monday afternoon at the prettiest affair held in the Country Club in the history of its many social successes.

The reception held opened the third Monday afternoon of the Maids and Matrons for the winter season. The parlors were converted into a veritable tropical garden by means of potted palms, bay trees and ferns. The lights were turned into beautiful red lotus blossoms, which glowed through the greenery. The effect from an artistic standpoint was one long to be remembered.

Here and there between the trees, tables were laid and decorated with long-stemmed roses in tall cut glass vases. A delicious Spanish tea was served in courses. During the refreshment hour soft music was played by orchestra and harp, concealed by a bank of palms.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS NOTES.

The order is included in 55 grand domains, and 20 subordinate lodges, not attached to any grand domain but under the immediate control of the supreme lodge. During the years 1910 and 1911 there were admitted by initiation a total of 101,099 new members.

Those lodges under the control of the supreme lodge include two in Alaska, eight in the Canal Zone, two in China, one in Cuba, six in Hawaii, and one in the Philippines, with a combined membership of 1494.

The local lodge is Miradero No. 96, meeting at 302½ Brand boulevard, K. of P. hall, which lodge has not missed a month since last January, in initiating candidates.

VALLEY PICNIC.

This annual gathering under the auspices of the Old Settlers Association, takes place tomorrow (Saturday) at Somerset Farm, corner of Verdugo road and Ninth streets, the home of the president of the association, Mr. J. C. Sherer. The attendance promises to be the largest ever attending any meeting of the organization. The affair will be entirely informal and everybody, old settler or new, will be made welcome. The main feature of the day will be the luncheon under the spreading pepper trees at noon. Coffee will be provided and guests will bring a basket luncheon.

Visitors coming on the Eagle Rock car line will get off at Third and Verdugo road. At the P. E. depot transportation will be furnished for a limited number of out-of-town guests.

CELEBRATES 87TH BIRTHDAY.

Mr. M. Deal, father of Fred Deal of the Sunset Telephone Company, celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday Saturday last. Mr. Deal was born in 1825, on the site of the battle of Gettysburg, which occurred thirty-eight years afterwards. He lived in Baltimore for some time, and is full of interesting reminiscences of slave days and war times. He remembers when the first telegraphic message was transmitted by wire by Prof. Morse. Later he lived in Ohio many years, and has been in California about two years, and says he would not exchange any California house for the best furnished residence east of the Rockies. Mr. Deal is an ardent believer in and a worker for fifty years for the temperance cause.

Mrs. Nellie Mohen has returned to Glendale after a pleasant visit enjoyed in Santa Monica.

The Lowering of P. E. Track

The lowering to grade of the P. E. tracks on Brand boulevard, a matter which has been hanging fire for two or three years and has been more or less agitated from time to time and been prolific of consultations between the officials of the road and the Glendale city authorities, particularly the city engineer, is still a live issue. During the past week Mayor T. W. Watson and City Engineer Lynch waited upon Pres. Paul Shoup of the Pacific Electric and laid the matter before him. Mr. Shoup only promised to give the matter personal attention at once, but the impression was conveyed to his visitors that the work will soon be done in accordance with the plans of City Engineer Lynch, which appear to be satisfactory to the railroad people.

WEDDING.

At the home of B. C. Thrasher, Sycamore Canon, occurred a pretty wedding under the trees near the house Sept. 16th, at three o'clock, when his youngest daughter, Annie, was married to Mr. John Martin of Wakena, Cal., oldest son of the late John Martin of the north of Ireland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene Haines, pastor of the First Baptist church, in the presence of about fifty invited guests, Miss Nettie Thrasher of Burbank, and Mr. F. P. Ward of Lankershim acting as bridesmaid and groomsman. Following the ceremony refreshments were served.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Thanks are extended to Mr. H. D. Potter, of Glendale, who donated ten dollars to the public library, to be expended on books of travel and biography.

A new Underwood typewriter has been purchased for the library. This means that all books will be listed as soon as they arrive, and a complete catalogue will be accessible for reference of everything the library contains.

Reference books for the entire four-year course of English in our local high school have been obtained and placed on the library shelves.

A SURPRISE TO FRIENDS.

A romance of two years standing culminated in the marriage of Miss Vida Knowles of 224 West Avenue 59, Highland Park, to Mr. Harry Herbert Coles of East Los Angeles Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The marriage, which was solemnized at the home of Rev. Geo. B. Cliff of the Highland Park Methodist church, was a complete surprise to even their most intimate friends, all plans having been carefully guarded.

After a brief honeymoon, the newlyweds will make their future home in a cozy bungalow now being built on Gardena avenue, Tropico, California.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

On recommendation of the public welfare committee to the board of trustees it was ordered that a notice be published in both local papers stating that the minimum fee for collecting garbage be fifty cents a month, and that two cans of eight gallons capacity, each to be emptied twice a week; that any additional cans required must be of the same capacity and each one will be charged for at the rate of ten cents a month extra; that tin cans and bottles will have to be kept until further notice, as no dumping ground for the same has yet been obtained.

THE NEW ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

Two committees are at work securing rights of way for the proposed new line of the Pacific Electric on the east side of Glendale. One is making an effort to get the right-of-way along or about in a line with Everett street. The other is working for the Childs tract line route, which runs close to the Fourth street school on the west. The railroad insists upon a private right-of-way fifty feet in width if it decides to accept the latter route, as it will be compelled to take care of the storm water. It is understood that a forty-foot strip will be satisfactory elsewhere.

NEW BUSINESS BLOCK.

The work of piling up brick in the wall of the Cole & Dameron building, on Broadway, west of Brand, has begun. The block will have a frontage of fifty and a depth of eighty feet. The two stores on the ground floor have been let; one will be occupied as a cafeteria, the other by an auto supply establishment. The owners are undecided as to whether the block shall have more than one story at present.

ST. MARK'S GUILD.

St. Mark's Guild held the first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Frank Grosvenor on Hawthorne street. The meeting was called to order by the new president, Mrs. Henry Ward. After a profitable afternoon, devoted to needlework for the benefit of the Guild, delicious light refreshments were served. The next meeting of the Guild will be held September 26, at the home of Mrs. M. Rehart, in Los Angeles.

THE CHARTER ELECTION.

This election to select fifteen freeholders to frame the proposed charter for Glendale comes off today. Eighteen names will appear on the ballot. Voters can make no mistake in selecting any fifteen of them.

THE SCHOOLS

Increased Attendance All Around. Prospects for Prosperous Year

OUR HIGH SCHOOL.

The busiest place during the past few days was the Glendale Union high school. The principal of the school, Prof. George U. Moyse, and vice principal, Prof. Harry L. Howe, have been working night and day in an effort to get the classes in shape for work and to ascertain that each student is properly seated upon his or her rung in the educational ladder. Up to the time of going to press the enrollment of this school is 310, this being twenty more than the enrollment at the opening of the previous school year. This year there are 107 in the Freshman class against 90 last year. It is gratifying to note that nearly all of last year's graduates from the Glendale grammar schools have registered for work this year in the high school. Many students have entered from Tropico, Sunland and La Canada. A number of new scholars are being enrolled from outside California points and also from eastern states. This year there are 60 in the Senior class. As many as half a dozen of last year's graduates from this school have re-entered for postgraduate courses and are taking especial training in their chosen studies.

The officials are having considerable trouble in making room for the unusually large enrollment. In every department of the school this crowded condition exists, notwithstanding the fact that the woodworking department now has a building entirely its own. This temporary structure was erected during the past vacation.

"The number entering," stated Mr. Moyse this week, "is entirely too large for the school, but we feel confident that by utilizing every bit of space we shall be able to accommodate them. We have found it necessary to adapt the science lecture room to the work of the music department, the science work to be carried out in another room. Many of the rooms have been rearranged by changing the floors and petitions so as to accommodate the classes. The rooms that were used for the woodworking department last year have been floored with wood and are now being used for the domestic science and the sewing departments."

In the woodworking department the following pieces of machinery have been installed: Circular saw, band saw, jointer, mortiser and lathe. Each of these pieces are run by an individual motor, the single motor being used for the safety of the students.

In the athletic department Mr. Darsie, who has charge of the work, reports that he has promising material. Basket ball practice will soon start. It is the expectation that the track will be ready for the training of the track team and other sports in a few weeks.

Changes have been made in the laboratory for the physiology class, and in the girls' locker rooms changes have been made so that these rooms may have better heating and ventilating, and that this department may be made to accommodate more students.

The instructors at this school for the present year are as follows: Prof. George U. Moyse, principal; Prof. Harry L. Howe, vice principal, history and geometry; Robert D. White, commercial; Margret Knepper, English; M. Darwin Root, English, history and debating; Dorothy B. Poppy, English, history and Latin; Bessie L. Field, history and Spanish; Ethel Hume Flood, Latin; Helen H. Darsie, cooking, German; George F. Taylor, chemistry and physics; Alta M. Stone, algebra and chemistry; Marvin L. Darsie, botany, general science and physical culture; Jane Hawk, physics and physical culture; Mr. Gates, typewriting and shorthand; M. Irene Miller, art; Dora L. Gibson, music; Vera E. Holloway, domestic science and sewing; Henry L. Moore, manual training. The new teachers entering this year are Miss Muller of Oxidental college, Mr. Darsie of Stanford, recently a teacher in the East, and Miss Darsie, a graduate of University of Southern California.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS.

The total enrollment in the various grammar and intermediate schools is in the neighborhood of 850. A large increase in attendance marks the opening of all the schools.

A PERSISTENT BURGLAR.

Monday night last, Mrs. McKinnon, of Dryden street, had an exciting experience with a burglar who entered her house and was driven off by the courageous woman, who struck him with a chair and put him to flight. It is supposed that the same man made the attempts at 1029 and 1322 Louise street, and on Lincoln avenue, in the same neighborhood, the same night, and was driven away.

MASONIC PICNIC.

The Masons are to have a big picnic at Verdugo Park tomorrow (Saturday), which is expected to be a very enjoyable affair. Among other amusement stunts to be pulled off is a baseball game for the youngsters of thirty, forty, sixty or thereabouts, who will show an admiring audience how they used to do it.

THE JAPANESE CASE.

The case against the Japanese charged with criminal assault, which was brought up before Recorder Whomes last Saturday, was heard before a large representation of the Japanese colony, and the accused was found guilty of simple assault and fined accordingly. He was defended by Col. Tom Thornton, his employer.

GLENDALE, CAL., SEPTEMBER 20, 1912

The weather department has been treating Southern California to a taste of summer weather during the past few days just as a reminder that we have not been overlooked.

The Ohio women who tarred and feathered another of their sex will probably not be prosecuted, being women, unless their victim should die, in which case some show will possibly be made of an attempt to punish them for an act that would be a disgrace to untamed savages.

The city of Alhambra has served notice on the Sunset Telephone Co. to buy out the Home company or sell, as the trustees are determined to do away with the nuisance of a dual telephone system. The Sunset company has been operating there without a franchise.

Our fellow editor, Mr. C. H. Randall, who is the representative of this district in the Assembly and who lost out at the primary in an attempt to secure the nomination for Congress, tells in an article in the Highland Park Herald, which we quote, how he incurred the opposition of the Lissner machine. It is good reading for our friends who swallow "Good Government" recommendations whole.

The Glendale Consolidated Water Co. which furnishes water (sometimes) to the people of Lincoln Park, South Pasadena, is becoming unpopular in that community. It is claimed that the company ordered water shut off from a part of their pipe system, the result being similar to the condition brought about by the same company in Glendale some two months ago. There was a mass meeting held the other evening and the matter will probably be settled in court. The company claims that it cannot afford to pump water at the price fixed by the trustees.

THAT REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The Republicans of Los Angeles greeted Hon. J. M. Harlan and Hon. Adam Bede with an audience that filled the Temple Auditorium from top to bottom Tuesday evening. The disturbance caused by the "Good Government" partisans, led by Meyer Lissner, was an entertaining feature not down on the program, and reacted, as such tactics always do, upon the disturbers.

All three presidential candidates were represented by their partisans in the audience, but the Taft people were in such a majority that their enthusiastic applause drowned all noisy opposition. Mention is made of this meeting and these brief facts are here stated because the principal journalistic organ of the "Progressives" has given an account of it that is very largely untrue. The stenographic report of the speeches given in the Times the following day is correct and should be read by every voter anxious to be informed as to the presidential question.

THE OPINION OF SENATOR WORKS.

Our "Progressive" friends are not quoting their own Senator Works nowadays. But the senator must not be mislaid. He is still alive and uttering now and then a wholesome truth. He was recently interviewed and said among other things:

"Our people," he said, meaning the Progressives, "are doing grave wrongs in California. They are perpetrating one of the greatest political frauds that has ever come to my knowledge. And they are going to do great injury to the Progressive cause. I refuse to take part in the things they are doing, and a great many real Progressives will refuse to join them." Asked if he considered Roosevelt a Republican, Mr. Works replied: "Why, of course he is not. His platform renounced the Republican party and denounced it. I am a Progressive Republican, but not a follower of Roosevelt. I do not believe in the third party nor in Roosevelt's sincerity as a professed Progressive."

With especial emphasis and with a lawyer's insight into certain aspects of the doings in California, Senator Works spoke of affidavits made by persons seeking nominations as Republicans with the intention of voting for Roosevelt. "Those who have made them," he said, "may be prosecuted for perjury, and the chances are that they will be."

THE "PLAN" MAY BE MODIFIED.

The very latest plan of the California Bull Moosers, if we may accept the personal statement of Mr. Meyer Lissner, looks to abandonment of the scheme to steal the Republican organization in California. Their purpose was unshaken by moral considerations. It sneered at consistency and fair dealing. It did not wince at open fraud. With an unblushing hardihood it laid down a plan involving wholesale and barefaced perjury. But it hesitates—if we may assume that Mr. Meyer Lissner sepaks with authority—when confronted with the menace of the law.

The Progressives, Mr. Lissner now says, will under certain contingencies "consent" to nominate their electors by petition. The plan anounced six weeks ago and ratified by the authority of all the Progressive leaders—with Senator Works as an honorable exception—may be abandoned. Since Mr. Lissner in Mr. Johnson's absence is the absolute boss of the Progressive machine, his dictum may be accepted as representing the revised Progressive purpose—that is, unless some means shall be found by which the originally planned fraud may be carried forward without criminal liability. There is, indeed, no professing new moral inspiration; change of plan will come, if at all, only because the whip of the law against perjury hangs in plain view.—S. F. Argonaut.

WHERE RELIGION MEANS PATRIOTISM AND SACRIFICE.

The other day in Tokio, Japan, at the funeral of the emperor, General Count Mosureka Nogi and his wife stepped out of the funeral procession and killed themselves in the ancient manner of the Japanese by impalement on the sword. The question arising in the Occidental mind upon hearing of this tragedy is whether this is really the twentieth century, or a dream? In the West, suicide is never considered honorable and is regarded as the last resort of the loser in life's battle or the act of one deprived of reason. In the old days of Rome the taking of one's own life was permissible and regarded frequently as the commendable act of the stoic. But in Japan human life is regarded as only an episode and to be dispensed with whenever it may seem to the possessor to be called for by the stern necessities of the case. The Japanese who sacrifices his life at the demand of patriotism enters at once into his reward, and in Japan patriotism is synonomous with religion. It was not grief that impelled the hero of the great war with Russia to fall upon his sword, it was rather a stern belief that the gods required the sacrifice and he and his loyal partner cheerfully gave that which their faith demanded and passed, let us hope, to the reward which their faith told them awaited their arrival in another land beyond the peaks of the sacred mountains.

The western world cannot do otherwise than appreciate even though it cannot understand, the sublime faith of a people in the religion of their fathers which makes them capable of the supreme sacrifice.

In the West we should consider him to be mentally unbalanced who committed suicide on the plea of patriotism, and have only a feeling of pity for the unfortunate victim of a delusion, but not so in far Japan.. With their viewpoint and their sublime faith the Japanese will be inspired by the act of Nogi and patriotism in the hearts of the faithful receive new life and urge them on to acts of greater devotion to their country which is to them their god.

BREAKING A PRECEDENT.

An almost unprecedented condition of affairs in the business world in the midst of a presidential campaign, now exists in the United States. Instead of the customary depression in business to which we have been accustomed so that we look for it once in four years, a condition of business activity prevails which gives promise of improving rather than otherwise during the next two months. The cause for this happy condition might be attributed to the excellent condition of the crops throughout the country except for the fact that natural conditions have heretofore seemed to have nothing to do with the quadrennial depression noticeable in former years, and the cause may be looked for in another direction. To us it seems merely to indicate the fact that the business world has ceased to take the politicians seriously. The leaders in the financial and industrial world whose opinions have a natural effect upon public enterprises and commercial ventures, have evidently come to the conclusion that regardless of which of the three prominent candidates may be elected president, things will move on much the same as they are doing at present. Should President Taft be re-elected, the present stability of affairs will as a matter of course be unchanged as far as governmental policies are concerned. Should Mr. Wilson be elected, they evidently believe that notwithstanding the declaration for a "tariff for revenue only," there will be no serious change made in the tariff structure which is the protection thrown around some of our industries. And as for the chances of Mr. Roosevelt's success, they believe them to be negligible, or in the event of his being elected, are of the opinion that however revolutionary his utterances, he will "coo as gently as a sucking dove" when he has placed upon him the weight of responsibility, an opinion which as far as Wall street is concerned, is justified by his seven years in office. Altogether the situation in the business world is such as may cause us all to be thankful even if a time-honored precedent is broken.

FLOWERS AND FEATHERS.

Once more Mrs. Charles T. Eudemiller has opened the fall and winter seasons with a charming display of the newest and prettiest of the advance styles in her millinery shop at 405 Brand boulevard.

Never before have the display windows of this inviting shop appeared to better advantage. A background of rich black velvet makes an excellent foil for the handsome creations so effectively arranged.

The hats themselves leave nothing to be desired in variety of size and style, richness of material, masterly skill in workmanship or grace of line. There are samples of so many of the up-to-date styles on exhibition that space forbids any detailed description.

A large variety of untrimmed shapes and myriads of handsome ornaments are being displayed during this week, and all are cordially urged to visit the shop and enjoy the artistic exhibit.

RANDALL WILL BE INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE.

Yielding to a numerously signed petition from the leading residents of Highland Park, all neighbors of our present Assemblyman, Charles H. Randall, that gentleman has decided to allow his name to go on the November ballot as an Independent Progressive candidate for re-election. His splendid record in the last legislature is well known all over the district, and especially does he stand well with the people out side of the city of Los Angeles, whose interests he has especially championed. Just now his services will be especially important to secure just legislation upon the proposed city and county consolidation scheme which Mr. Randall declares is drawn in unfair terms to the county.

AIDING FARMERS TO PROSPER.

To increase the yield per acre of every farm in California, that thus the farmer's profit may be increased, and yet the cost of living be reduced for the consumer—this is the object of the farmers' institutes which the University of California is now arranging for the current year. The state has provided $15,000 for this year's work of sending out agricultural experts from the University to spread among the citizens of California knowledge of methods which will make the soil more fruitful, crops more valuable, and farm life better.

In stock raising and dairying regions, for instance, the farmers' institute lectures are promoting the planting of alfalfa, timothy, or clover, that the number of animals a given acreage will support may be increased from the small figure wild grasses will carry, and the profit be made more commensurate with the values of California lands.

LOS ANGELES THEATRES

BELASCO, "THE GAMBLERS."

By far the most notable event of the Belasco season will be the first stock production next Monday of "The Gamblers," coupled with the first appearance in this city of Orrin Johnson and Marguerite Leslie. Local playgoers know the splendid worth of this Charles Klein piece. Mr. Johnson comes with the reputation of having played leading roles with some of the foremost stars of the American stage, as well as having been a stellar attraction himself, while Miss Leslie's reputation in London, where her theatrical experience has been gained, rests largely upon the excellence of her work as well as the unusual beauty of the young woman. With this combination the Belasco should be the scene of unwonted theaterical activity during the engagement of these two players, not only in "The Gamblers," but in the other fine plays that have been secured for them.

The Burbank audiences this week will have an opportunity to enjoy a George Randolph Chester story, made over for stage use by Winchell Smith, the clever author of "The Fortune Hunter," and known as "Bobby Burnit." A combination of the creator of the Get Rich Wallingford stories and such a clever playwright as Mr. Smith ought to result in a comedy of more than ordinary worth, and "Bobby Burnit" comes from the eastern cities where it was played by Wallace Eddinger with this sort of reputation.

"Bobby Burnit" may be termed a dramatization of a department store. George Randolph Chester wrote a story about youthful Mr. Burnit, a bouyant irresponsible chap whose father died and leaves him an enormous fortune. For two sets of the play everybody robs young Mr. Burnit from a vicious old plutocrat down to the humblest employe in his department store. During the progress of this pair of acts young Mr. Burnit has been getting his business eye teeth cut to such splendid advantage that during the remainder of the play he is about as astute a business man as one might care to see either behind the footlights or in actual business life. Young Mr. Burnit proves his worth by making all sorts of money—he gets back everything he lost in his earlier business ventures as well as a lot of additional cash, not to mention the heart and hand of the heroine in the story, who during the entire progress of the story never once has lost her confidence in young Mr. Burnit and his ability to eventually win out.

A NEW MOVEMENT NAZARENE WORKERS.

This is the first time that the Nazarene workers have visited Glendale. Rev. Goodwin, who has been successfully promoting the Nazarene University at Pasadena for the last year and a half, is now holding services in the tent on Orange between Third and Fourth streets. The Nazarene doctrine is not new, but on the other hand, seems to be nothing more than the religion of our Father. Although some of their methods are a little strange compared with present church ideas of a religious service. They sing and shout like old-fashioned Methodists, and promote freedom of speech in all their meetings.

The Nazarenes have churches in many of our Southern California towns with a very large church in Los Angeles numbering about one thousand. The movement now numbers throughout the county something over 20,000 and is growing very rapidly.

The tent where services are conducted is commodious and well lighted and nicely carpeted. The services are to continue every evening beginning at 7:30 with a service Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Goodwin will speak Sunday evening on the "Three Biggest Fools in and Around Glendale." Rev. C. V. LaFontaine speaks Friday night of this week. There will be an all-day meeting Thursday, Sept. 26, when many out-of-town workers are expected.

COUNTY CHARTER COMMITTEE WORK.

After devoting several meetings to the discussion of questions leading up to the determination of matters of policy affecting the more important features of the proposed county charter, the board of freeholders of Los Angeles county at its meeting of Tuesday, September 10th, agreed upon the following matters:

1. That the following offices shall be created: County Counsel, purchasing agent, superintendent of charities, public defender, road commissioner, road overseer, registrar of voters, and a civil service commission.

2. That the sheriff be made an elective officer.

3. That all county officers except sheriff, district attorney, auditor, assessor and justices of the peace be appointive.

4. That the term of office for all county elective officers be four years.

5. That the district attorney and auditor at the first election following the adoption of the charter, be elected for two years in order to carry out the idea of a short ballot, as under this arrangement all county officers will not be elected at the same election.

6. That (a) the board of supervisors fix all salaries except those fixed by the charter; (b) no salary of any elective officer be increased or diminished during the period from ninety days before his election to the close of his term; (c) no salary of any officer under civil service shall be increased or diminished during his incumbency without the consent of the civil service commission specifically given thereto.

At the meeting of the board held on September 13th the following matters were determined:

1. That the public administrator be made ex-officio coroner.

2. That the charter provide that the board of supervisors levy one-half cent on each hundred dollars of assessed valuation for the support of the civil service commission, and that at the end of each calendar year the unexpended balance go into the general fund.

3. That the charter provide that all elective county officers be subject to the recall.

A motion providing for the consolidation of the offices of treasurer and tax and license collector was made a special order for the meeting to be held on September 17th.

RACETRACK GAMBLING.

By Franklin Hichborn.

At the November election the people of California will be given opportunity to say at the polls whether racetrack gambling shall be revived in California.

At enormous expense, those interested in seeing racetrack gambling resumed have had placed on the ballot, through the initiative, the so-called racetrack gambling bill. If a majority of the electors who vote on this measure vote for it, the present anti-racetrack gambling law, under which racetrack gambling has been suppressed, will be nullified. Should the initiated bill become a law by the votes of the people, the legislature can not repeal it. It could be repealed only by the votes of the people. This would require the initiative of a repealing law.

The gamblers, once more established, could afford to spend literally millions to defeat the repealing measure. It is safe to say, that even with the state aroused against the evils of racetrack gambling as it was in 1908, $100,000 would be required to force the repeal of the proposed gambling bill should it become a law. The time to defeat it is now.

False Faced.

The vicious feature of the proposed gambling measure is that it does not appear to be a gambling measure at all. Through several pages, the bill prohibits gambling and provides direful penalties for all who gamble.

In the last lines, however, appear a few words which open the way for the return of the gambling element. "Any and all racing associations and corporations," the bill provides in these last lines, "which shall obtain licenses to conduct race meetings in the state of California pursuant to and under this act, may conduct and carry on and permit within the enclosure where horse racing is held betting upon the races conducted within said enclosure by and through the Paris Mutual and Auction Pool Systems of betting."

A Strangle Hold.

Once the people of California by their votes enact that provision into law, the gamblers will be given a strangle-hold upon the state of California. What this would mean is shown by the details of the last gambling orgy at Emeryville in 1908, the year before the first anti-racetrack gambling law went on the statute books.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand. Mark vi:30-44.

Golden Text—Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life. John vi:35.

(1.) Verse 30—What is the advantage of telling God in detail about ourselves and our affairs?

(2.) What would you say the twelve told Jesus concerning "what they had done and what they had taught?"

(3.) Verse 31—What is the relative importance of necessary work and necessary rest?

(4.) What evidence is there that, notwithstanding his busy life, Jesus taught by precept and example the need of taking proper rest?

(5.) Verse 32—Is it either wise or necessary for a faithful minister of the gospel to tell the people when he takes a rest?

(6.) Verse 33—If Jesus intended to go away "privately" how do you account for it that his plans were upset?

(7.) Jesus intended to take a rest with his disciples, but instead was plunged into more intense work. Now, which would you say was God's preference, that Jesus' intention should be carried out or that which actually happened?

(8.) To a man of God which is divine guidance, what he expects to do or what he actually does?

(9.) Verse 34—If preachers and other Christian teachers succeed in making Christ actually known to the masses will the people flock to Christ, as in those days? Why?

(10.) What was the condition of the people which so moved the heart of Jesus, and what conditions today are there which when known stir similar compassion in all Christian hearts?

(11.) Which are the people in more need of today, preaching or teaching?

(12.) Verses 35-36—Were the disciples right or wrong, and why, in calling the attention of Jesus to the needs of the multitude?

(13.) If our heavenly Father knows our temporal needs what is the benefit of calling his attention to them?

(14.) Verse 37—Does God ever command his children to do that which he knows they cannot? Give your reasons.

(15.) Whom does God command to feed the millions of the earth who are spiritually hungry, and when and how does he expect it to be done?

(16.) When God commands us to do that which looks to us to be impossible is it wisdom or folly for us to attempt it, and why?

(17.) Verses 38-40—What is the proof that we have all the necessary qualities and opportunities to accomplish the work in life to which we are appointed by God? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(18.) When a man is not systematic and works without method is that any evidence that he is not true to the laws of God? Why?

POTATO GROWERS, ATTENTION!

A peculiar disease of the white potato which may be designated as the Internal Brown Streak, occurs in this state apparently to a serious extent. The University of California Agricultural Experiment Station is making a thorough investigation as to the cause and nature of the trouble, since there appears to be a large financial loss in certain localities.

Appearance of a potato affected by Internal Brown Streak: The surface of a potato affected by this disease is apparently healthy. Upon cutting, however, the inner portion is found to be discolored by the presence of brownish streaks which may affect a very small part or may be so numerous that the whole of the inside is discolored, rendering the potato unfit for food. Many questions arise, such as the relation between its occurrence and the date of planting, source and variety of seed, field culture, character of the soil, etc., which can only be answered by observing the conditions under which the crops are growing.

All who are growing potatoes on a commercial scale and have suffered losses from this cause, and are willing to cooperate in this investigation, are earnestly requested to notify the Experiment Station at Whittier, California, as soon as possible.

UP TREE TO GET AWAY FROM LYNX

But Beast Ascended Another and Fight Followed.

MAN USED KNIFE ON BOOT.

Tied His Only Weapon to Leather and Kicked When Wildcat Got Too Near. Missed Once and Had His Ankle Chewed to the Bone.

IN the following story, taken from the Wide World Magazine, an old eastern lumberman tells of the time when, alone and unarmed save for a stout knife, he met in the woods a Canadian lynx or panther:

Finding my escape to the camp cut off, I looked about for some other way to avoid the vicious and hungry beast. Two poplar trees stood by the side of the road about three feet apart, both clear of branches except for a few feet at the top, and I decided that my haven of refuge lay there.

My experience on the logs made it easy for me to shin up one of the trees, so that in a moment I had put several feet between myself and the gaping jaws of the panther below. I climbed rapidly onward to the top. I was beginning to think that the worst that could happen to me would be having to remain in the tree all night or until rescued by my brothers when, to my horror, I saw the brute slowly ascending the second tree, which stood within a few feet of the one in which I had taken refuge. Like a great cat he scaled the tree, and as he came opposite the feline fangs reached out for me.

Tied Knife to Boot.

Fortunately I had chosen the taller of the trees, and so the panther could not spring on my head and shoulders, although he made several efforts to do so. His fierce snapping at my legs gave me an idea. I had on a pair of high legged boots, very common in those days, and with my belt I tied my long knife firmly to my left foot. When he reached out from the other tree I caught him full in the neck with a well directed kick, which inflicted a nasty wound and nearly jarred me from my perch.

The stab gave the panther the surprise of his life, and as he retreated I thought he would make off at once, but little did I know that I had a veritable four footed fiend to deal with. With blood matted mane he climbed the tree again, and this time it was the brute that drew blood. So quick were his movements that he had inserted his teeth in my ankle before I could drive the knife home, and his fangs brought away not only a piece of my boot and sock, but tore the flesh as well. My foot bled freely.

Beast Came Back For More.

After each attempt to reach me the lynx would descend the tree, nurse his wounds for a moment and then come back at me.

For half an hour the struggle went on. I was getting weak from loss of blood and from thigh to ankle was a mass of bites and scratches, while my boots were torn to shreds, the left one being only held in place by the strap that bound my precious knife to the lacerated foot.

Intermittently, when the demon gray shape slid to the ground to rest, I shouted wildly for help. My brothers said afterward that they came as soon as they heard the first call. Before they arrived, however, I had given the panther what I have always believed was his deathblow.

Caught Him In Neck.

I caught him in the neck again, the knife going so deep that I could hardly withdraw it, and, judging from the amount of blood left on his trail, his jugular vein must have been severed. The vicious brute seemed to realize that help was coming from the camp, for when my father, who was ahead, hove in sight with an ax the creature slipped down the tree and dashed away. Just then I fainted and, losing my grip, slid limply to the ground.

OPPORTUNITY.

The busy world shoves angrily aside
The man who stands with arms akimbo set
Until occasion tell him what to do,
And he who waits to have his task marked out
Shall die and leave his errand unfulfilled.
—Lowell.

Zeal and duty are not slow,
But on occasion's forelock watchful wait.
—Milton.

There is a tide in the affairs of men
Which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and in miseries.
—Shakespeare.

HIGH COST OF LIVING.

One of the unreasonable attitudes taken by some of the unthinking is to blame the high cost of living and other things that cause the public expense and concern, upon the railroads. In justice to many right-thinking persons it should be explained that this view is popular only with a class of mind that never goes very deeply into such matters.

They would make it appear that the railroad is an institution whose chief concern is to exploit the public, and that executive railroad officials are modern despots, callous to everything but a wish to get all they can and give as little as possible in return. No attention is accorded by this class of mild agitators to the courage and genius that have given to the country the most efficient railroad system in the world. And that we have, as was testified by Interstate Commerce Commissioner Lane, in speaking before the International Railway Congress, where he represented the United States.

"The conference established beyond question," said Commissioner Lane, "the supremacy of the American railroad from the standpoint of efficiency. Our railroad system is without a parallel in the world. In the 15 years from 1894 to 1909, inclusive, the saving to the people of the United States in transportation charges, made possible by greater efficiency, amounted to $7,144,343,000, or a little over $1,300,000 a day for the entire period. There are more than 1,000,000 investors directly interested in railroads and more than 1,500,000 railroad employes in the United States. These 2,500,000 people represent at least 10,000,000 of our population who are dependent upon the reasonable prosperity of the railroads for their daily bread and butter. They are keenly alive to having the country show a steady growth and in doing their share in providing railroads big enough and efficient enough to transport the commerce of the country."

TALK ABOUT MAKING MONEY

Can you beat this?

Of course you can make it, if you work hard enough and save long enough. You don't have to do either in the fertile San Jacinto Valley. The following are only a few of the recorded instances and happenings of the past week:

Mr. Douglass of Los Angeles closes a deal one morning, starts home to get the wife and kids, barely reaching there before he received a telephone message offering $1,500 for his bargain, which he accepts with a smile, and buys another piece for the fifteen hundred.

Mr. Holland of Redlands bought a place on the advice of a friend, without even seeing it, gets a raise of $800 more than he paid, which he pockets and buys again.

Mr. Robinson, an old orange grower of Pasadena, is making extensive purchases. He is going to sell all of his citrus holdings, and buy the choice apricot, pear and other fruit lands around San Jacinto (these lands are conceded the best in the whole country for the purpose). He is delighted with his purchases, and with the valley in general.

Mr. Gates of Streator, Illinois, purchases forty acres, and says he would not sell for three times what it cost him. He is already at work improving and beautifying it for a permanent home. Mr. Gates says he made a detailed trip by auto all over Southern California, seeking a desirable location, and that San Jacinto is the only place where he found every condition absolutely satisfactory.

Mr. Sturgess, our Riverside neighbor, buys three ranches, and says he is going to invest every cent he has in San Jacinto lands, just as fast as he can dispose of holdings elsewhere.

There are hundreds doing the same thing, getting rid of their high-priced ranches, already too high to go higher, and investing in and around San Jacinto, where big profits and big advances are assured. Every acre and town lot in this beautiful valley is a great bargain at twice the present price, but with the Santa Fe loaded to the guards almost every trip to the valley, especially Saturdays and Sundays, it won't be long until you will have a Pasadena and Riverside proposition confronting you. The thing to do is to get here before that happens. Come over and see for yourself. We will guarantee you a good time, and the prettiest sight you ever saw.—San Jacinto Board of Trade.

The boys of the former Baraca class of the Presbyterian Sunday school and the girls of Philathia class of the same school, enjoyed an evening of games and music at G. A. R. hall on Glendale avenue, Thursday evening. The affair was given by the boys complimentary to the Phjlathia class and was attended by at least forty young people of this city.

Work started Wednesday morning on the improvement work on Moore avenue. At this time the work will be finished as far east as Boynton street, but it is believed that before a great while the residents of this thoroughfare living east of the section now being improved will believe it to be a wise move to have their walks and curbs put in and the street graded and oiled.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church of this city will give a box social in Knights of Pythias hall on San Fernando road next Tuesday evening, Sept. 24th. An excellent musical and literary program is being arranged. The lunch boxes, which will be brought by the ladies will be auctioned off to the men. Coffee will be served free. No admission will be charged.

Lewis M. Farnham, secretary of the Southern California Gas company, has made application in behalf of the company for a franchise with the privilege of laying a tripple line of pipe upon and along one side of the San Fernando road for the purpose of conducting natural gas from the northern gas field to and into Tropico and onto and into Los Angeles. A franchise will be advertised for sale before a great while.

City Engineer Lynch, in behalf of the public works committee of the Tropico trustees, has made a report to the people of this place that a plan had been agreed upon for conducting the accumulation of storm water in Sycamore canon on Adams street from the foot of that street across private property into the Barranca across Moore avenue and along the northerly base of the Tropico foothills on the south and east.

Tropico grammar schools opened last Monday morning. The enrollment this year is larger than ever and before the year closes the prospects are that the building will be filled to its capacity. Mrs. Martha McClure is being ably assisted this year by a very capable corps of assistants. During the past year a number of improvements were made to the school house and grounds, and now Tropico's school will not play second place to any grammar school in this section.

The La Halla Temple No. 122, Pythian sisters of this place, gave a very enjoyable basket social in the Knights of Pythias hall on San Fernando road Wednesday evening. The affair was one of the real social times for which this organization is noted. Each last present took a basket filled with a lunch for two, while the men were charged fifty cents admission. During the evening partners were chosen and the refreshments eaten. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed during the evening.

Mrs. F. I. Marsh was honored guest at a dinner party given last Friday by Mrs. Samuel A. Ayers at her home on Central avenue. Roses and smilax constituted the decorations in the various rooms, and a course repast was served. The guests present included Mrs. E. T. Byram, Mrs. J. C. Thomas, Mrs. Albert Dow, Miss Rachel Sherer, Miss Jennie Cornwell, Miss Lavina Banker, Miss Ruth Byram, Glendale; Miss Alice Dewey, Pasadena; Mrs. J. D. Botts, Garvanza; Mrs. D. H. Imler, Mrs. N. C. Burch, Mrs. W. H. Myers of this place. Mrs. Marsh will leave in a few days for her old home in the East, after which she will return to take up her permanent residence among friends at this place.

The plans were drawn by Architect Priest, of Casa Verdugo.

A large contingent of North End scholars registered on Monday at the West Glendale school. They sallied forth in squads and platoons down the roads, and made a pleasing sight. Mrs. Carl Wuth, of Viola avenue, received a dispatch Wednesday noon informing her of the sudden death of her only son, Robert Goetz, of heart failure, in San Francisco. The telegram was sent Sunday, the 15th inst., but by an inexplicable delay only reahced her on the 18th inst. Mr. and Mrs. Wuth left Wednesday for San Francisco, when Mrs. Wuth will accompany the remains to Denver, the former family home, for interment. Robert Goetz left home only two months ago, to establish himself in the business world, and was a very promising and exemplary young man of about twenty years of age. He was a talented violinist. His taking away is a severe blow.

A member of the light-fingered gentry put in some practice work last Monday morning, between the hours of 2 and 5. The home of E. Dunham, 1029 North Louise street, was entered through a window, and Mrs. Dunham's dress suit was missing in the morning. Attempts were made on the neighbors on each side, but without success. An entrance was effected to the McKinney house, 933 Dryden, but the intruder was discovered, followed by a lively scuffle, ending by the burglar's departure through the front door, closely pursued by a flying chair. An automobile standing on Dryden street was relieved of a laprobe and dashboard clock. From the premises of J. N. Freeman, Lincoln place, his bicycle was abstracted. Take it altogether, there was some excitement. Although Glendale and Los Angeles police departments are working on the cases, no trace of the culprit has yet been reported. During these days of conventions, huge political meetings and the circus it is wise to make premises secure from intruders.

Obituary

Mrs. Eliza Moschell-Carr passed away Sunday, September 15, 1912, 1 a. m., at the home of her son, Clarence M. Carr, 1125 Melrose Avenue, Casa Verdugo, with whom she had lived for twelve years. She was in her 93d year, having been born at Albany, N. Y., March 7, 1820. She was married to Joseph Henry Carr, Jan. 27, 1840, at Liverpool, N. Y.

Eleven children were born to the union, nine of whom arrived at maturity. Seven children survive her, including Col. Henry Herbert Carr, B. Seward Carr and Miss Caroline Carr of Chicago, Ill., Clarence M. Carr, credit man of Pease Bros. Furniture Co., Los Angeles, Maurice W. Carr, of Casa Verdugo, Mrs. Georgianna Carr of Glendale, and Mrs. Alice A. Lockwood of Buffalo, N. Y. There are six grandchildren and eight great grandchildren surviving.

The funeral services were held in the Pulliam Chapel, Glendale, Tuesday the 17th inst., conducted by Rev. Mr. Morrison, of the West Glendale M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Grissinger, of the University M. E. church, Los Angeles, of which congregation she was a member.

The remains will be interred in the family lot, Rosehill Cemetery, Chicago, whither they were conveyed accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Georgianna Carr, via the Santa Fe Limited.

Mrs. Carr received a complete education at a private seminary for young ladies and developed into a brilliant woman of a beautiful Christian character. The span of her life reached back of the life of Napoleon and all modern improvements and inventions were accomplished within her experience; from the tallow candle to the perfected electric light, the ox-cart to the swift limited train; the saddle horse to the aeroplane and the multitude of mechanical inventions utilized down to the present day.

Mrs. Carr resided in Chicago, Ill., and environs, for over fifty years, returning to Los Angeles some eight years ago. The golden wedding of the couple was celebrated in Chicago, March 7, 1890; her husband died March 25, 1900, in Chicago, after their 60th anniversary was observed, March 7, 1900.

The ancestors of Mrs. Carr immigrated to America during the Revolutionary war from "Deux Pont," (French) "Zweibrucken" (German), the town in the Moselle country, which was the disputed territory between France and Germany at that time. Mrs. Carr died from extreme old age, but with mind clear to the end.
